

Executive Insight Recognized in Vault 2020 Consultancy Europe Ranking

Zurich, London – September 25, 2019 – Executive Insight has been recognized in the newly released 2020 Vault ranking of best consulting firms to work for in Europe. The company received special distinctions in the categories “Diversity” and “Work/Life Balance”.

Vault Consulting Europe rankings are based on scores from current employees and professionals from other consulting firms about topics such as firm culture, work/life balance, career development, compensation and outlook. Respondents to the survey specifically acknowledged Executive Insight’s people-centric culture, open communication lines and non-hierarchical set-up.

“Executive Insight was founded on the premise of being a different kind of consulting company and in many ways, 20 years on, these results are a validation of that ambition” noted Andrea Sobrio, founder and managing partner of Executive Insight. Marc Pesse, Partner at Executive Insight and responsible for HR, adds “We are honoured to be recognized as a top consulting firm in the Vault ranking! We truly care about our employees and are constantly striving to establish a culture of supporting and helping each other learn and grow.”

Some examples of what Executive Insight employees said about the firm:

- > “A great, supportive company culture that cares about the development of their people.”
- > “Collaboration with clients to identify and develop those solutions that add real value. Being a true partner to create excellence.”
- > “Everybody can contribute to the firm’s development from day one, thereby getting significant personal development opportunities.”
- > “If you love working in a multi-cultural environment, are motivated about leaving a footprint and you are committed to the healthcare/pharmaceutical industry, Executive Insight is the place you need to be.”

The ranking underscores Executive Insight's high efforts that are put into finding and hiring passionate employees that have a strong fit with our company values.
